- Ellipses within square brackets [...] indicate where existing CA language not affected by a proposal has been left out to save space.

54. UNIT 1 Letter of Intent
11: Offset

The parties agree that any across-the-board increase in the salary/wage rates, or increases in the Graduate Financial Assistance rates negotiated by the parties, negotiated by the parties shall not be offset by a decrease in monies from other sources, in subsequent sessions in defining annual minimum funding levels for individual graduate students, all other things being equal. The parties agree that the monetary value of any increase in the salary/wage rates negotiated by the parties shall represent an increase in the annual minimum funding levels for individual graduate students. This is not intended to guarantee previous levels of actual funding for individual graduate students year-over-year.

As an illustration, a graduate student is awarded a minimum funding level for a given year of $20,000, and the wage/salary component is $10,000 in that year. If the negotiated wage/salary increase for the next year is 2%, then the value of the negotiated wage/salary rate increase would be $200 and the minimum funding level in the next year would be $20,000. Changes:

1) Protect more funding sources from clawbacks ("offsets"); if we bargain for wage/funds increases or if the amount of certain awards are increased, this cannot be used to claw back the fellowship.

2) Include the York Fellowship as a source of funding that shall not be offset by increased funding from other sources, including but not limited to the York Graduate Fellowship, in subsequent sessions in defining annual minimum funding levels for individual graduate students, all other things being equal. The parties agree that the monetary value of any increase in the salary/wage rates negotiated by the parties and/or increases to the amounts of external awards (e.g., Ontario Graduate Scholarship) shall represent an increase in the annual minimum funding levels for individual graduate students. This is not intended to guarantee previous levels of actual funding for individual graduate students year-over-year.

Changes:

[November 7, 2023]

The parties agree that any across-the-board increases in the salary/wage rates, or increases in the Graduate Financial Assistance rates negotiated by the parties, in the Grant-in-Aid rates, to the UHIP Fund negotiated by the parties, increases to the amounts of external awards (e.g., Ontario Graduate Scholarship, Tri-Council Awards, etc.), and increases to the International Tuition Offset shall not be offset by a decrease in monies from other sources, including but not limited to the York Graduate Fellowship, in subsequent sessions in defining annual minimum funding levels for individual graduate students, all other things being equal. The parties agree that the monetary value of any increase in the salary/wage rates negotiated by the parties and/or increases to the amounts of external awards (e.g., Ontario Graduate Scholarship) shall represent an increase in the annual minimum funding levels for individual graduate students. 10.01 WORKLOAD The Parties recognize that many variables are associated with identifying and defining the requirements for preparing and teaching in a course. Nevertheless, the under-noted position titles and minimum salary or hourly rates shall apply and, so far as practicable, the duties and responsibilities of a particular appointment shall be discussed and agreed upon prior to the start of that appointment. The parties agree that in carrying out the following workload provisions, the objective of members of the bargaining unit and hiring units and/or course supervisors is to avoid overwork.

10.01.2 Type 1 Positions:

(i) The expected workload of an appointment to a Type 1 position shall be no more than 535 hours. Expected workloads shall be adjusted proportionally if a fractional appointment is made.

(ii) All work required to be performed by a bargaining unit member in the fulfillment of the duties expected of a Type 1 appointment shall be included in the hours noted above in (i). This work may include, but is not limited to, preparation of a course syllabus, preparation for classes, preparation of written or audio-visual materials, attending lectures, teaching, leading discussions and supervising laboratories, rating students' work, holding office hours, consulting with students, invigilation of tests and exams, writing and grading tests, examinations and lab sets, grading essays, term papers, and problem sets, setting up experiments, and conducting field trips.

(iii) Since bargaining unit member is primarily responsible for assigning themselves reasonable duties and responsibilities, allocating sufficient hours, and ensuring that the assigned duties and responsibilities of the Type 1 position can be completed within the time allocated:

(a) As soon as possible after the start of the appointment, and, normally, no later than the end of the first calendar month of the course (e.g., end of September for full-year and fall courses and end of January for winter courses), the bargaining unit member shall, in as much detail as practicable, allocate sufficient and reasonable time for the various duties and responsibilities. The workload allocation shall be confirmed in writing by the bargaining unit member with a copy sent to the hiring unit Chair/Director and to the union. This written confirmation shall hereafter be referred to as the Workload Form. (See Appendix XXX Workload Form for Unit 2 Type 1 Positions.)

(b) By the end of January for fall/winter courses or as soon after the mid-point of the course as practicable, the bargaining unit member will assess whether the remaining duties and responsibilities can be completed within the hours allocated and without exceeding the maximum workload set out in 10.02.2(i). This assessment shall be confirmed in writing with a copy of the Workload Form send to the hiring unit Chair/Director and to the union. Where the assessment indicates that overwork has occurred or is likely to occur, the bargaining unit member and hiring unit Chair/Director shall meet, with a union representative present if the member so wishes, and, where appropriate, shall attempt to find a mutually acceptable remedy.

(c) Notwithstanding (b) above, as soon as a bargaining unit member becomes aware, or reasonably ought to have been aware, that the hours in 10.01.2(i) may be exceeded, normally they shall request in writing a meeting with the hiring unit Chair/Director to discuss possible overwork. The Chair/Director and bargaining unit member shall meet, with a union representative present if the member so wishes, and, where appropriate, attempt to find a mutually acceptable remedy.

(d) An acceptable remedy in a discussion as per (b) or (c) above, is compensation for additional hours worked, provided that the Dean or their designate approves such compensation.

10.01.3 Type 2 Positions:

(i) The expected workload of an appointment to a Type 2 position shall be no more one-third of the workload for a Type 1 position, or 178 hours for each Type 2 appointment. Expected workloads shall be adjusted proportionally if a fractional appointment is made.

(ii) For Type 2 positions, all work assigned and/or approved by the course supervisor shall be included in the hours noted above. This work may include, but is not limited to, preparation for classes, preparation of written or audio-visual materials, attending lectures, teaching, leading discussions and supervising laboratories, rating students' work, holding office hours, consulting with students, invigilation of tests and exams, writing and grading tests, examinations and lab sets, grading essays, term papers and problem sets, setting up experiments, conducting field trips, and conferring with the supervisor.

(iii) Since the course supervisor/director is primarily responsible for assigning reasonable duties and responsibilities, allocating sufficient hours, and ensuring that the assigned duties and responsibilities of the Tutor or Instructor can be completed within the time allocated:

(a) As soon as possible after the start of the appointment, and, normally, no later than the end of the first calendar month of the course (e.g., end of September for full-year and fall courses and end of January for winter courses), the course supervisor shall assign and discuss the duties and responsibilities and the reasonable pacing of the work assigned, taking into consideration the normal sessional fluctuation and patterns of work, of the appointment, in as much detail as practicable, with the Tutor or Instructor. As part of the discussion of the duties and responsibilities of the Tutor or Instructor, the course supervisor and the Tutor or Instructor shall discuss how important course dates (such as assignment due dates and dates of tests and exams) correspond to centralized administrative deadlines (such as the final date for submitting grades). The course supervisor and Tutor or Instructor will agree upon a reasonable pacing of work that allows, where not in conflict with centralized administrative deadlines, for a minimum turnaround time of fourteen (14) calendar days from the date that the Tutor or Instructor receives an assignment (or a date of a test or exam) and the Tutor or Instructor's grading deadline. This discussion of duties and responsibilities, including the allocation of time for the various duties and responsibilities, shall be confirmed in writing to the Tutor or Instructor by the course supervisor with a copy sent to the hiring unit Chair and to the union within fourteen (14) calendar days of the meeting. This written confirmation shall hereafter be referred to as the Workload Form. (See Appendix XXY Workload Form for Unit 2 Type 2 Positions.)

(b) By the end of January for fall/winter courses or as soon after the mid-point of the course as practicable, the course supervisor shall again discuss the assigned duties and responsibilities with the Tutor or Instructor to assess whether the remaining duties and responsibilities can be completed within the hours allocated. The discussion and assessment shall be confirmed in writing to the Tutor or Instructor by the course supervisor, with a copy to the hiring unit Chair/Director and to the union within fourteen (14) calendar days of the meeting. Where the assessment indicates that overwork has occurred or is likely to occur, the course supervisor and Tutor or Instructor shall meet, with a union representative present if the Tutor/Instructor so wishes, and, where appropriate, shall attempt to find a mutually acceptable remedy.

(c) Where the course supervisor fails to discharge their responsibilities per (a) and (b) above, work performed by the Tutor or Instructor up to the time a workload meeting is held shall normally be deemed to have been assigned and/or approved by the course supervisor.

(iv) Since the Tutor or Instructor is primarily responsible for ensuring that the assigned duties and responsibilities of the position are completed within the time allocated:

(a) Notwithstanding 10.01.3(iii), as soon as the Tutor or Instructor becomes aware, or reasonably ought to have been aware, that the hours in 10.01.3(i) may be exceeded, normally they shall request in writing a meeting with the course supervisor, or in exceptional circumstances shall request in writing a meeting with the hiring unit Chair/Director, to discuss possible overwork. The course supervisor or Chair/Director and Tutor or Instructor shall meet, with a union representative present if the teaching assistant so wishes, and, where appropriate, attempt to find a mutually acceptable remedy.

(b) An acceptable remedy in a discussion as per 10.01.3(iii)(b) or 10.01.3(iv)(a) above, is compensation for additional hours worked, provided that the Dean or their designate approves such compensation.

(v) Where the Tutor or Instructor or the union believes that the workload provisions of the collective agreement have not been fulfilled or where a mutually acceptable remedy is not found, they normally shall inform the Chair/Director of the workload concerns. The Chair/Director shall within seven days of the receipt of the notice consult with the responsible union representative(s) and, if appropriate, the Tutor or Instructor and shall attempt to find an acceptable remedy. Normally, the Chair/Director shall have fourteen days from the receipt of the notice to resolve the matter.
10.01.4 (i) Where, upon completion of the procedures specified in Article 10.01.2 and 10.01.3, the matter is not satisfactorily resolved, grievances alleging violations of the workload provision of Articles 10.01.2 and 10.01.3 shall normally proceed to Step 3.

(ii) In exceptional circumstances, on application by the union indicating such exceptional circumstances, grievances alleging violations of Articles 10.01.2 and 10.01.3 may be processed according to the expedited grievance procedure in Article 6.15.

(iv) Notwithstanding 10.01.4 (i) and (ii) above, an acceptable remedy of a grievance alleging overwork is compensation for additional hours worked at the Overwork Rate in 10.04.1.

15.10.5 EXPERIENCE CREDIT FOR PARTICIPATION

(i) The parties agree to develop a protocol for the awarding of APE credit for participation, taking into consideration the degree of such participation both in terms of time commitment involved and difficulty of the tasks performed:

(ii) In recognition of their contributions to the governance of the University and to collegial academic and administrative activities, members of the CUPE 3903 Unit 2 bargaining unit will earn Applicable Prior Experience (APE) credit for participation on University committees including but not limited to the following:

a) participation on Senate and subcommittees of Senate;
b) participation on Faculty, School or Departmental Councils and their subcommittees;
c) participation in CUPE 3903 and its subcommittees;
d) participation in joint CUPE/Administration committees and activities;
e) participation in the governance and activities of the Research Centres;
f) participation in such units as the Teaching Commons, and advising centres;
g) participation in deliberative and governance bodies of the Colleges;

h) participation in unit or Faculty level academic and administrative committees including but not limited to Executive, Academic Planning, Curriculum, Hiring, Affirmative Action, Program Review Committees, and Tenure and Promotion Committees;

i) participation in University Advisory Committees and Task Forces;

j) service to organizations outside the University which is of an administrative nature, and not part of an employee’s research program, such as serving on review committees for awards, grants, and scholarships;

k) participation in University related development activities;

l) service to the University community in support of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) initiatives and priorities;

m) service to the external community (e.g., service to Aboriginal (Indigenous) communities) demonstrably relevant to the University’s academic priorities.
Service may include both service of a routine administrative nature, as well as service which contributes to the academic goals and governance of an employee’s hiring unit, Faculty, or the University as a whole.

(ii) The parties will consider whether such credit is Cap-exempt in whole or in part. In each contract year, members of the bargaining unit participating in committees as per article 15.10.5 (i) will earn APE credit based largely on the time commitment required by such participation.

In each contract year, participation amounting to less than 62.5 hours of work will count as 0.33 FCE. Participation of more than 62.5 hours will count as 0.67 FCE.

In recognition of the fact that some committee work involves a higher degree of skill, labour, and/or commitment, participation on some committees may earn members more APE credit than the above guidelines (to a maximum of 1.0 FCE per contract year), as determined by the Labour-Management Committee.

In each contract year, participation on any eligible equity-related committee, task force, or working group will count as 1.0 FCE.

The Labour-Management Committee will determine the number of hours allotted for work on each committee.
during a contract year. Prior to 1 September 2024, the union members of the LMC will bring to the LMC a non-exhaustive list of committees/working groups and suggested APE equivalents for each. The list will be updated as necessary to include eligible committees and other bodies existing as of but not included in the initial list and/or those created after the list's approval. Additions to the list of eligible committees / working groups shall not be unreasonably denied.

(iii) Applicable prior experience credits for participation shall be subject to the cap.

(iv) Members of the bargaining unit claiming experience credit for participation will report their participation, including the name of the committee(s), to the Employer electronically.

(v) On October 1 and June 1, the Employer will update the work histories of bargaining unit members who have reported their participation to include the experience credits in reports submitted since the last update and will provide a list of members receiving new experience credit, the committees they received credit for,
