To qualify for the payment described in the paragraph above an employee must have:
(a) provided notice of participation in the Continuing Sessional Standing exercise to all applicable hiring units (i.e., all hiring units whose curriculum includes courses for which, if offered as Unit 2 bargaining unit work, she would be the most senior incumbent candidate); and

(b) additionally applied for bargaining unit positions in accordance with her "normal" historical application profile and was available for appointment to these positions.

An employee who is twice offered 2/3 or less of her average number of Type 1 or equivalent positions based on the previous 5 contract years and has received the two one-time payments described above may either elect to opt out of the program or accept the number of positions offered. An employee who elects to opt out of the Continuing Sessional Standing Program shall communicate such election in writing to Faculty Relations.

Cessation of Continuing Sessional Standing Employees who meet the eligibility criteria for Continuing Sessional Standing shall maintain this status for a minimum of three contract years and shall continue in this status for successive three contract year periods provided that as of the September 1 at the end of each 3 contract year period, she has a minimum average annual teaching intensity of 2 Type 1 or equivalent positions over the three contract year period just completed. In the event that the employee's average annual teaching intensity is lower than 2

Members with historic teaching profiles in more than one hiring unit may be offered positions by any of these hiring units. have been in the Unit 2 "Affirmative Action Pool" for a minimum of 5 years and who have taught at an intensity of an average of 2.5 FCEs over the three previous years (may include approved leaves) will be deemed to have the Long Service Teaching Appointments (LSTA) designation.

24.02. Term of LSTAs and COMPENSATION

24.02.1. LSTAs will consist of contract assignments comprising 3.5 full courses or their equivalents in each year, compensated at the rate of 5.5 course directorships. The workload of a member with an LSTA will be capped at 3.5 full courses, or their equivalent, per year.

24.02.2. In assigning teaching positions, assignments will first consist of courses in which the employee has incumbency or, where the employee meets the qualifications.

24.07 In the 2017-2018 contract year a minimum of 7 LSTAs will for be offered to eligible applicants for September 1, 2018, in the 2018-2019 contract year a minimum of 7 LSTAs will be offered to eligible applicants for September 1, 2019, and in the 2019-2020 contract year a minimum of 7 LSTAs will be offered to eligible applicants for September 1, 2020. To the extent practicable a minimum of one third of the total number of LSTAs over the threeyear period will be made from among those who belong to one or more of the four employment equity groups: aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, visible minorities and women.

24.10 Employees holding an LSTA may submit a written application to renew the LSTA for another three-year term. Written applications must be submitted no later than January 31 of the third year of the LSTA (e.g., no later than January 31, 2017 for an LSTA that expires August 31, 2018).

To be eligible for renewal applicants must have had their teaching reviewed by a member of the full-time faculty in the hiring unit(s) pursuant to Article 24.06 above over the course of their current LSTA. Applications will be assessed on the basis of the quality of an applicant's teaching, evidence of which will include the review pursuant to Article 24.06 above. Applications will also be assessed on the basis of the unit's academic planning needs.

	union representative. In the case of disability accommodations, the meeting will also include EWB. In the case of Unit 2 accommodations, the meeting will also include a Faculty-designated Assoc. Dean.
	iv) At the meeting, all reasonable accommodations to the point of undue hardship will be explored.
	(d) If a meeting is not required to review all reasonable accommodations to the point of undue hardship, the Contract Administrator shall propose a workplace accommodation plan (WAP) within ten (10) calendar days of receiving the documentation as per 4.01.1 c) and/or f). If the proposed WAP is acceptable to the member, it shall be implemented as per 4.01.1 e). If it does not address the member's accommodation needs, a meeting will be arranged as per 4.01.1 c).
	(e) Whether as a result of the meeting in c) or step d), once a WAP is agreed to, the designated Contract Administrator shall within five (5) calendar days advise staff, faculty and other officials that need to know of the WAP's existence in order to implement it, and the specific courses of action they need to take for implementation. The member and their union representative will be immediately informed that this communication has occurred.  (f) Types of Documentation: this will be understood to vary with the type of protected ground that gives rise to the accommodation need. Examples of satisfactory documentation include:  Family-status accommodations: Proof of parent-child relationship, and proof of need of accommodation in relation to caregiving requirements.  Marital-status accommodations: Proof of spousal type relationship, and proof of need of accommodation in relation to caregiving (e.g. medical note for spouse).  Disability-based accommodation: Members need a formal letter from a doctor that:  i) attests to the existence of a medically documented disability, without providing a diagnosis;

	ii) notes that there are cognitive and/ or physical effects of the disability that give rise to specific restrictions, limitations and/or current capacities; iii) provides a clear list of these restrictions, limitations and/or current capacities.  (g) The Employer and the Union will meet on a monthly basis to ensure all members' accommodation requests have been addressed and finalized.
