The EER will record the progress York has made in each department to meet equity thresholds. When the thresholds have not been met, the hiring unit will be supported to improve its procedures and policies. The EER will focus on strategies to change York's institutional culture to increase employee retention from equity groups demonstrated through concrete results.
85	U1 4.04.13	New	Create an of Office of Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, and Intersectionality	RECOMMENDATION A: An Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion at York should be established under the direction of a Vice-President or a Vice-Provost, to implement the diversity and

				inclusion vision of the university. Such an office will also ensure that a diversity and equity lens is used in decision-making, policies and practices. The Office would be located in the heart of the administration and enjoy the resources necessary to ensure the fulfillment of its mandate to drive and track the process of change towards inclusion and diversity. RECOMMENDATION B: A Vice-President or Vice-Provost for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion should be appointed to head the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion and assume responsibility for the implementation of the diversity and inclusion vision at York University. Such an appointment will signal the place of diversity and inclusion at the core of York's mandate. RECOMMENDATION C: The Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion would oversee anti-racism training for administration, staff and faculty; the implementation of new structures to address the complaints system for harassment and discrimination; take direct responsibility for the policy, public education and systemic discrimination function of DHPS; oversee the implementation of York's Employment Equity policy; support inclusive curriculum development initiatives; encourage and facilitate research in the areas of equity, diversity and inclusion, so as to produce new knowledge and promising practices; and regularly monitor and publicly report on York University's progress on equity and inclusion. RECOMMENDATION D: The new Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion should submit a report to the Board of Governors and to the Senate on an annual basis. Such a report should include information on progress on diversity and inclusion goals, on policy and program changes, curriculum and institutional reforms, training for cultural change, communication and accountability. It should be sufficiently transparent and use disaggregated data that is based on the framework as set out OHRC policy guideline "Count Me In" which captures data based on Code protected grounds, inclusive of qualitative and quantitative data collection methods. The following principles

				are noted within the OHRC guidelines, tracking and reporting data can help organizations to so that there is a clear sense of the impacts on particular groups in the community. RECOMMENDATION E: A Council of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion should be established to support the work of the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion as well as the Vice-President or Vice Provost, EDI. This Council, drawn from faculty, staff and students, will act in an advisory capacity and review the EDI annual progress report on the implementation of diversity and inclusion at York University. RECOMMENDATION F: Diversity and inclusion should be included in the performance evaluation criteria of leadership positions. An example would be adding the following as a fifth criterion to evaluate a chair/director: "A chair-director should be proactive in promoting diversity and inclusion in all areas of academic activity, including admission, hiring, and curriculum" NOTE: It is important to emphasize that the Vice-Provost for EDII will report to York's President AND the EDII Council made up of all stakeholders at York. At the end of the academic year, within two months, the Vice-Provost will hold a public meeting to report on the previous year's activities and accomplishments. This Report will be accessible on York's website and a copy sent to the federal, provincial and municipal governments. The EDII Council will be provided with the resources to issue their own report too. This Report will also be reported on and distributed as outlined above. This annual 'Report Card' will assess progress, steps forward and future goals and objectives. Best practices such as The City of Toronto's Anti-Racism, Access and Equity Policy and Complaints procedure would be integrated in the work at York. This reporting will ensure public accountability of public dollars.
