APPENDIX A: Equality Statement

The following statement is recited before every GMM in accordance with the union policy of promoting anti-oppression awareness and a respectful collegiality amongst the membership:

Union solidarity is based on the principle that union members are equal and deserve mutual respect at all levels. Any behaviour that creates conflict prevents us from working together to strengthen our union.

As unionists, mutual respect, cooperation and understanding are our goals. We should neither condone nor tolerate behaviour that undermines the dignity or self-esteem of any individual or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Discriminatory speech or conduct which is racist, sexist, transphobic or homophobic hurts and thereby divides us. So too, does discrimination on the basis of ability, age, class, religion, language and ethnic origin.

Sometimes discrimination takes the form of harassment. Harassment means using real or perceived power to abuse, devalue or humiliate. Harassment should not be treated as a joke. The uneasiness and resentment that it creates are not feelings that help us grow as a union.

Discrimination and harassment focus on characteristics that make us different; and they reduce our capacity to work together on shared concerns such as decent wages, safe working conditions, and justice in the workplace, society, and in our union.

CUPE's policies and practices must reflect our commitment to equality. Members, staff and elected officers must be mindful that all members deserve dignity, equality and respect.

Following immediately and without debate, the Chairperson will ask, "Will the decision of the chair be upheld?" A majority vote shall decide. In the event of a tie vote, the decision of the chair is upheld.

The Ways and Means fund shall be administered in quarterly allocations in order to ensure that the fund is not depleted during any one period of time.

The quarterly cap is defined as such, first quarter is October-December, the second quarter is January-March, and the third quarter is April-September.

In the event of a strike/lockout, this fund shall be frozen commencing the 1st day of a strike/ lockout and will continue to be frozen until the day after the strike/lockout ends.

Committee Structure

Elections of committee members are conducted every March in a GMM. The committee is comprised of three local CUPE 3903 members.

Honorarium for this committee is $1000.00 per calendar year.

The committee's mandate is to make funds available to CUPE 3903 members who find themselves in unexpected financial crisis, for example, death in the family, unforeseen illness of the member or their dependants, theft and/or legal costs and other emergency circumstances.

The maximum award amount from this fund per application is $1000.00 per year.

Reporting

The committee must report to a GMM every third quarter.

The committee's year end report will be presented to the local CUPE 3903 Executive Committee, and the Labour Management Committee (LMC) for submission to the Employer, no later than two (2) weeks after the August 31st year end. The local CUPE 3903 union can not receive the next yearly installment of funds until such as report is given to the Employer via the LMC.

APPENDIX D – Extended Health Benefit Committee

Preamble

The Extended Health Benefits Fund (EHBF) is collectively bargained by and for CUPE 3903 members in Units 1, 2 and 3. The agreed to amounts are provided to the union by the employer for each September to August Collective Agreement year at the start of it. The Extended Health Benefits Committee (EHBC) is a group of members elected annually at a General Members Meeting. Their role is to adjudicate applications. The equity officer serves on the committee ex-officio.

The purpose of the EHBF is to support members with health care costs that would cause an undue financial burden and that are not covered by the Sun Life Insurance plan. In setting up the policy, guidelines and allocation process for the EHBF the union recognizes that there is a strong relationship between a range of social factors and a person's health and well-being. Such social determinants of health include, but are not limited to: income, social support, education and literacy, employment and working conditions, housing, health services, nutrition and coping skills. The union also recognizes that inequitable access to resources and supports may be specific and/or systemic. People may have a lack of access due to poverty and they may be denied access due to one or more forms of social exclusion (such as racism, sexism, ableism heterosexism and transphobia). Health issues and health inequities are thus often deeply intertwined.

This understanding also incorporates the fact that there is a finite amount of money in the Fund for a growing union membership of approximately 3400. Ongoing collective bargaining is critical to continuing to improve member access to funds to support them with health care expenses.

Role of the Extended Health Benefits Committee

The EHBC's collective role is to give equitable access to and allocation of a finite amount of funds in each Collective Agreement year to members of CUPE 3903 as per this policy. The EHBC members sign a confidentiality agreement at the start of their term. The committee makes decisions based on all the guidelines set out below in the policy. Committee members do not deliberate on their own EHB application.

Fund Types, Funding Periods and Budget

There are two fund types: Option A for extended health care needs that are unexpected and urgent that present an undue financial burden and Option B for extended health care needs that are foreseeable or planned that present an undue financial burden. Option A claims are adjudicated on a monthly basis. Option B claims are made on a going forward basis and adjudicated three times a year, with application deadlines of September 10, January 10 and May 10.

There are three funding periods each year. The $100,000 in the Fund for the 2010-2011 year will be allocated as follows:

	Sept 10 to Jan 9	Jan 10 to May 9	May 10 to Sept 9
Option A (40%)	13,400	13,400	13,200
Option B (60%)	20,100	20,100	19,800
Total: $100,000	33,500	33,500	33,000

At the end of each Collective Agreement year the EHBC will update this budget for membership approval to reflect the coming year's funds.

Allocation Guidelines

The following guidelines are used in the application review and fund allocation process. They include basic eligibility requirements, factors assessed for equitable disbursement and eligible expenses.

Basic Eligibility:

- Due to the limited availability of funds, access to the fund is restricted to members only, not their family members or dependants. The exception is with reproductive technologies.
- Health care expenses made during a Collective Agreement year will only be reimbursed during that year.
- EHBF member eligibility follows Sun Life insurance plan eligibility. Thus members may make claims for four months after the date of their last contract, as long as the expense made or proposed is in the Collective Agreement year in which the member applies.
- Generally Option A expenses will only be considered in the funding period in which they are incurred.
- All applications must be fully completed in order to be considered.

Equitable Disbursement Factors:

- Members may apply as many times as they wish in a year.
- After the first funding period, priority will be given to first time applicants that year.
- Consideration will be given to members who have international student status and/or who are single people with dependents.
- Option B applicants have the opportunity to identify in an equity statement any form of social marginalization they experience (for example, as a result of race, ethnicity, class, sexual orientation, ability, etc.) and how this affects the needs they are trying to meet with the application.
- Approved applicants will generally receive between 25% and 50% of the costs applied for.
- As this is a financial needs based fund, the committee may follow up with members whose net income appears large in comparison to the EHB amount being requested.

Eligible Expenses:

Support from this fund might range from the one time purchase of an assistive device to an ongoing regiment of therapy or to unexpected health needs resulting from a sudden accident or injury. This includes assistance with costs associated with longer-term disabilities and/or care needs that are not otherwise covered by under other health insurance plans. Cosmetic procedures are not covered. In addition, the following is covered:

- Non-MD psychotherapy
- Travel health insurance (does not include baggage or cancellation insurance)
- Acupuncture
- Orthotics (with a doctor's note)
- Vision care expenses, once the regular plan coverage is exhausted (proof of exhaustion required)
- Emergency dental work, once the regular plan coverage is exhausted (proof of exhaustion required)
- Prescription drugs after coverage is spent, once the regular plan coverage is exhausted (proof of exhaustion required)
- Naturopathy, Chiropractic, Physiotherapy, Psychologist, Podiatry and Massage Therapy (this last one with a doctor's note within the last year) once the regular plan coverage is exhausted (proof of exhaustion required)
- Incidental health expenses (e.g. hospital parking, emergency taxis, crutches/canes, etc.)
- Other services de-listed from OHIP

Appeals

When a member notifies the committee that they wish to appeal a committee decision on their application, the member's application will be reviewed by one committee member, one designated executive member and the Equity Officer (ex-officio).

To be considered the appeal must be submitted within one month of the member's receipt of the committee's original decision.

Application Forms

There are two application forms, Option A and Option B.

APPENDIX F – Listserv and Posting Guidelines

Preamble

CUPE 3903 is committed to maintaining listservs that are safe and accessible for all members while ensuring that they provide space for fruitful, spirited discussion where the listserv's mandate permits. This means that, for listservs with a restricted purpose and mandate, members are expected to limit their discussions to the scope of the listserv. All members are expected to commit to participating in ways that are consistent with the CUPE code of conduct and to avoid harassing behaviour, discriminatory behaviour and personal attacks (definitions below). While this kind of participation is meant to ensure a safe space for broad participation, it will not always ensure comfort. It is everyone's responsibility to be conscious of the difference between posts with content or opinions that one dislikes or finds politically disagreeable and posts that include discriminatory and/or harassing language.

If an email upsets you, please take the time think about which one of these circumstances it represents. Similarly, if your remarks are flagged as harassing, discriminatory or attacking, please take the time to think about what you wrote before responding. Beliefs are changed most effectively through respectful discussion, not through personal attacks or summarily banning unpopular opinions. We hope and expect that all members will be able to contribute to maintaining a safe space for discussion.

However, we know that this is not always the case. As a result, our commitment to maintaining a safe space means that sometimes members who, after fair warning, prove themselves incapable of contributing to the production of such spaces may be temporarily or permanently banned from the listservs in order to preserve the space for all members. While we recognize that absolute objectivity is never possible, our commitment to moderating as objectively as we can means that listserv moderators will refrain from participating in online discussions.

Definitions

Harassment and discrimination are illegal under the Ontario Human Rights Code and/or the Occupational Health and Safety Act.

Harassment and Discrimination

Harassment on listservs includes, but is not limited to, threats or a pattern of aggression, insulting, demeaning or derogatory remarks about an individual's intelligence, competence, physical appearance or other characteristics which create a negative psychological and emotional environment for the member and/or in the union. Harassment is demeaning, offensive, intimidating, embarrassing and hurtful, and can undermine the integrity of an individual.

Discrimination on listservs includes comments that demean others on the basis of/by reason of race, creed, colour, age, sex, marital status, parental status, number of dependents, nationality, ancestry, place of origin, native language, disability or disabilities, Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), or related illness, political or religious affiliations or orientations, academic affiliations, record of sexual orientation, transsexual transition status, gender expression, and gender identity.

Listserv Rules

1. On signing up for the listserv, moderators give members the listserv rules and posting guidelines. The rules and posting guidelines will also be posted on the union's web-site.
2. If someone does not respect the rules and guidelines once, the listserv moderator(s) will remind them privately as to how the message contravenes the listserv policy and will inform the person about steps 3 to 5 below. The moderator(s) will also post a message on the listserv to advise people that they are following up on the harassing, discriminatory or attacking post.
3. For failing to meet the guidelines again within one year, moderator(s) may remove the member from the listserv for up to one week.
4. If a member removed returns to the listserv and does not meet the guidelines again within one year, moderator(s) may remove the member from the listserv for up to one week.
5. If a member removed returns to the listserv and does not meet the guidelines again within one year, moderator(s) may remove the member from the listserv until an investigation has been conducted by the executive committee, as per the CUPE constitution.
6. For particularly egregious postings, moderator(s) may immediately remove the member from the listserv until an investigation has been conducted by the executive committee, as per the CUPE constitution.
7. All listserv moderators will be given an orientation on how to implement this protocol and their attached job description.
8. Template messages for each step will be part of the job description.

Appeals

Members may appeal the decisions of the listserv moderator to the communications committee, who will be guided by this document in reviewing the moderator(s) decision.

Posting Guidelines

1. CUPE 3903 is a labour union. Try to limit discussion to topics that correspond to the objectives of the union as outlined in Article 2 in the objectives of the Constitution.

2. Remember that the person you are engaging with is another human being with thoughts, emotions, and feelings. Please be kind with your posts in the interest of building solidarity within the local.
3. If you find yourself writing an email in haste or anger, save in a draft folder and reconsider it before you hit send.
4. Respect other people's time. Try to limit the length of your posts. Limit your posts to no more than 3 emails to a list within a 24hour period.
5. Refrain from writing in caps. It is the equivalent of shouting.
6. Sarcasm can be easily misinterpreted over email.
7. Remember that not every person is educated in the same discipline as you; refrain from the use of language or acronyms that may exclude others from participating in the conversation.
8. Healthy debate means the use of constructive criticism and argument rather than attack. Focus on ideas, not people. Try to refrain from the need to be "right". Ideas are much more easily understood if not espoused in an oppressive or demeaning way.
9. Be careful not to silence those who have a long political history of being silenced (i.e. women, persons with disabilities, racialized persons). Recognize individual privileges when engaging in debate and try to refrain from repeating oppressive or demeaning behaviour.
10. Freedoms of consciousness, thoughts or beliefs are protected by the Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Moderator Job Description

It is the collective responsibility of CUPE 3903 members to implement the Listserv Rules and Posting Guidelines. The moderators of all listservs are to facilitate this as follows.

Moderators:

1. Demonstrate impartiality and are polite but firm while communicating with members who are not following the listserv rules and posting guidelines.
2. Do not participate in any discussions on the list they are moderating.
3. Add members to and remove them from the lists as needed.
4. Provide members new to the lists with the listserv rules and posting guidelines as soon as they sign them up.

5. Review listserv posts at least once a day to ensure they followed listserv rules and posting guidelines. If a moderator is unavailable for a period of time they will seek back-up from someone on the relevant caucus, committee or working group. For union-wide listservs, there will be two moderators.

6. Follow the steps outlined in the rules when post violates any of the listserv rules and posting guidelines. They will use the sample templates below.

Moderators are selected as follows:

1. By the relevant caucus, committee or working group that they are participating in
2. For union-wide listservs, two moderators will be elected annually at a GMM or when replacements are needed. If there are no candidates, two executive members will perform the moderators' duties.
3. Each moderator shall receive an honoraria of $500. Each moderator shall write a report of their activities to be presented to the Membership at the end of their term. Honoraria will not be released until this report is received.
